GAROG-I
SUBJECT: Redesignation of Bolo Point Trainfire Range, Fac 6021

MFR:

1. SUMMARY: By ref ltr (rec'd 21 Dec '76), USARJ forwarded GOJ's Memo (FSJG-395-1489-JI/KM, requesting that the name of Bolo Point Trainfire Range, Fac 6021, be changed to Senaha Communication Station to use the facility's location (name of nearest village) and its type of installation (communications) which conforms with USARJ Reg 405-1. At reversion, the basic trainfire range, one Mace site, one Nike Site (all released to GOJ subsequently) and the FBIS area (sole activity currently remaining) were designated one name of Bolo Point Trainfire Range, Fac 6021, to keep the number of USFJ facilities in Okinawa to a minimum. USARJ requested USAGO comment/recommendations be provided (NLT 23 Dec '76) after coordinating with FBIS. Due to short suspense, coordination was accomplished by FONECON (between [redacted] Ch, FBIS and Mr. Kanada, D/FE, IMD Realty Spec). Reply to USARJ is IAW request of FBIS. Their condition for concurring with the proposed change in name is based on requirements of their public relations for "cosmetic" and other effects.

2. BASIS FOR ACTION: Self explanatory by above summary.

3. COORDINATION: LTC Hamlin, D/FE STAT

MEMORANDUM TO: The Facilities Subcommittee

SUBJECT: Change in the Official Name of Certain Facilities and Areas

1. References:

a. MEMO No. 42, 26 November 1960, subject: Revision of the Schedule of Facilities. (Approved by the Joint Committee on 6 December 1960.)

b. MEMO No. 881, 15 May 1972, subject: Dolo Point Trainfire Range. (Approved by the Joint Committee on 15 May 1972.)

2. The Government of Japan proposes, subject to concurrence by the United States Government (USG), that the official names of the attached list of facilities and areas be changed as indicated.

3. These proposed changes are considered necessary to more adequately describe the current use of the respective facilities and areas.

4. If the above is acceptable to the USG, it is recommended that this matter be referred to the Joint Committee for approval.
